PART TWO

For the month of August there were three PROCAP related crimes reported within the city limits. Two were conveyance burglaries. The first was at 218 Carter Blvd where a motor home was burglarized and a .22 caliber pistol was stolen. The second was at 402 Bascom Court. In this case the vehicle was entered and a audio equipment was stolen. The last crime was a theft at Hungry Howies located at 221 Commonwealth Avenue. In this case cash was stolen from the cash registers and an attempt to steal the safe. No suspects have been identified in these cases at this time, however, in regard to the incident at Hungry Howies it has been determined employees are responsible and one employee has been terminated.
