In February 2011, there were five (5) PROCAP crimes reported compared to one (1) in February of 2010. Two residential burglaries occurred during the month. One occurred on Honey Bee Lane where computer related equipment was stolen. The other was on 1st. Street where the residence was ransacked, but nothing was stolen.

Two retail thefts occurred at the Little Food Town Store where Tide Detergent was stolen during one of the thefts. The property was recovered, but the suspect could not be located. On the second theft a package of steaks were stolen. The suspects could not be identified as of this time.

A petit theft occurred at the Country Angle Restaurant on Commonwealth Ave. and U.S. Currency was stolen. A possible suspect was identified. All the cases were turned over to the Northwest District Detectives for follow up investigations.
