In February 2012, there were two (2) PROCAP captured crimes reported compared to five (5) in February 2011. A Business burglary occurred on Oak Ave. where unknown suspects enter the business and removed batteries and stereo equipment from Gary's Jr. Auto.

A grand theft occurred at the Chevron gas station where an unknown suspect removed a wallet that was left on the front counter. The wallet contained $350.00 in cash. None of the above cases have been cleared at this time and all investigative leads are being followed up by the Polk County Sheriff's Office Northwest Detectives.
