In June 2012, there were four (4) PROCAP captured crimes reported compared to three (3) in June 2011. Two vehicle burglaries occurred at the Van Fleet Trail Head where unknown suspects entered the vehicles and removed credit cards from one of the vehicle and a purse from the other.

A vehicle burglary occurred on 2nd Street where a possible known suspect entered the victim's vehicle and removed a firearm. This occurred while the victim had several friends over during a gathering.

A mail theft occurred on Honey Bee Lane where the victim's medication was stolen from her mail box. The victim receives her medication via the mail, and when it did not arrive she contacted the pharmacist who advised her that the medication was delivered.

All investigations are being followed up by P.C.S.O. Northwest Detectives.
