In July 2012, there were seven (7) PROCAP captured crimes were reported compared to six (6) in July 2011. Five vehicle burglaries occurred during the month. Two were at the Van Fleet Trail Head where unknown suspects broke out windows and removed purses. One burglary occurred at the Dollar Market where unknown suspect entered an unsecured vehicle and removed a purse. Another one occurred on Commonwealth Ave. where unknown suspect entered a vehicle and removed a 22 caliber rifle. The rifle was recovered a few days later. The last burglary occurred on Ashley Drive where an unknown suspect entered a vehicle and removed a flash light and some hand tools.

A criminal mischief occurred at the Polk City Skate Park where unknown suspect spray painted one of the ramps at the park. A residential burglary occurred at 206 S. Citrus Grove Blvd. where unknown suspect entered the residence, but did not remove any property. All investigations are being followed up by P.C.S.O. Northwest Detectives.
