In June 2014, there were two (2) PROCAP captured crimes as compared to one in June of 2013. A Business burglary occurred at the Family Dollar Store located at 321 Broadway Blvd. where unknown suspects entered the store and attempted to remove the safe. The suspects were unsuccessful in taking the safe or open it. A burglary to a structure occurred at 346 Bayberry Dr. where unknown suspect entered a pool enclosure and sprayed painted the graffiti on the sides. The residence was vacant and the water in the pool and spa had been removed by the foreclosure company. No suspects in these cases were developed and the cases are pending until further leads are developed.
