In July 2017, there were three (3) PROCAP captured crimes as compared to one (1) in 2016. During the month two Grand Thefts were reported by the Dollar General Market. Two unknown suspects entered the parking lot and removed pallets of compressed cardboard by the shipping/receiving dock. This is an ongoing trend at this location since March 2017. Currently the Sheriff's Office has in place two game cameras capturing the suspects. We are in the process of setting up human surveillance to capture the suspects and take them into custody. Another Grand Theft was reported regarding a cellular phone stolen from the bathroom of the Circle K. The reportee refused to return to Polk City to make the report. The reportee reported the incident to the South West district where the reportee resides. Further investigation needed on all 3 cases.
