In July 2022, there was two (2) PROCAP captured crimes as equally compared to Two (2) in July 2021. There was a Grand Theft of a Motor vehicle from the Van Fleet Trail Head. The victim fell asleep at the picnic area after having a conversation with two younger subjects. When he woke up his keys and vehicle had been removed. Several day later the vehicle was recovered at Max Beach in Auburndale unoccupied, and returned to the victim. Suspect has been identified (pawn ticket), charges have been filed, and effects to locate the suspect are in effect. There was a burglary of an unsecured vehicle in the alley behind Country Angles where the victim works. Suspect in this case has been identified as well by the use of several surveillance cameras in the area. Charges are filed for the suspect, and efforts are in place to locate him. At this time we remain up 6 crimes total as compared to last year to date.
