Welcome Aboard

On April 18, 2022 the City Commission selected Charles Nichols to serve as the Commissioner for District #3. Charles is a Polk City native. Over the course of his career, he has worked for several government agencies, including a stint as the Utility Director through a third-party agency for Polk City. His entire working career has been in the Utility Field. His experience in Utilities and working for different government agencies gives him a unique perspective for future discussions and projects Polk City will be facing. He is excited about being able to share his time and experience as a City Commissioner to help Polk City be a place to live, work, shop and play.

Polk City would like to take a moment to introduce Polk City to its new Library Director: Hannah Ulloha. Hannah comes to Polk City with a wide array of expertise as she spent 15 years at the Kathryn L. Smith Memorial Winter Haven Public Library. She loves connecting with people and is passionate about community service. In her spare time Hannah likes to spend time with her husband, Saul, and two dogs, Chopper and Luna. She also spends quite a bit of time volunteering with several charity organizations as well as sewing, reading, cooking, and writing. Please take a moment to stop by the Library and say hello to Hannah!
